[REDACTED] was questioned relative to any connection he may have had with HOWARD HUGHES or HOWARD HUGHES' representatives [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. He was also questioned specifically as to whether or not he at any time participated in shadowing Senator BREWSTER. [REDACTED] advised that he had been contacted by an associate of his on the West Coast in April, 1947 relative to performing some investigative work for HOWARD HUGHES. [REDACTED]

stated that he had been employed by HUGHES and in April, 1947 had conducted quite extensive investigation pursuant to instructions by either HUGHES or HUGHES' representatives into the background of Senator BREWSTER's activities or associations with the Pan American Airways. [REDACTED] further stated that he had made a trip to the state of Maine and interviewed numerous people in an effort to establish the fact that Senator BREWSTER in fact did have connections with the Pan American Airways. [REDACTED] also advised that he had contacted numerous airlines and airplane companies. However, the sole purpose of his investigation had been an attempt to establish the fact that Senator BREWSTER had interest in the Pan American Airways and in fact had used their facilities gratis on numerous occasions. [REDACTED] stated that he used as a cover for this investigation the fact that the "Chosen Instruments Bill" was then being considered in Congress and he never identified himself to the people he interviewed as being employed by the HUGHES Company. [REDACTED] stated that he merely advised that he was representing a West Coast airplane manufacturer. [REDACTED] further stated that during the HUGHES investigation in Washington, after he had completed his investigation, HOWARD HUGHES had run a full page statement in several local newspapers in which information he had developed regarding BREWSTER had been set out. [REDACTED] stated that in July, 1947 he had contacted [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] at the Carlton Hotel on two occasions and to the best of his recollection he may have telephonically contacted [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] whilst they were staying at the Mayflower Hotel. [REDACTED] stated definitely however that he at no time personally contacted these men at the Mayflower Hotel and the reasons for the contacts in Washington were relative to the investigative work he had done for them. [REDACTED] also advised that at no time had he participated in any way in any alleged shadowing of Senator BREWSTER nor did he know of such shadowing. [REDACTED] further advised that quite frankly he was attempting to influence [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] to have he, [REDACTED] appointed the HUGHES representative in Washington, however, he had been unsuccessful. [REDACTED] continued that he had no knowledge of any telephone taps and in fact did no work at all for HUGHES or his party other than that mentioned above. b7c/b

[REDACTED] volunteered his opinion that he had great doubts that if Senator BREWSTER was shadowed that HUGHES, [REDACTED] or had anything to do with it and commented that both [redacted] and [redacted] were opposed to any vigorous action against BREWSTER as they had expressed the opinion that they could handle all the allegations made by BREWSTER without resorting to any investigation of BREWSTER. [redacted] continued that in fact [redacted] and [redacted] advised him that they had advised HUGHES not to even cause a check to be made of BREWSTER's activities with Pan American. However, HUGHES had overruled them and had hired [redacted] for the investigation as described above. [redacted] further stated that to the best of his knowledge he had never met Lieutenant SHIMON and although he would recognize him on sight, that at no time had ever had any personal contact even though he [redacted] had been employed by the [redacted] _____ further volunteered information that on one occasion when he visited _____ and _____ at the Carlton Hotel he had been stopped by one Lawyer and Lobbyist in the District of Columbia, with whom he was acquainted, and at this time _____ had questioned him as to his business at the Carlton. SUBJECT: LIEUTENANT JOSEPH W. SHIMON, was.

METROPOLITAN POLICE DEPARTMENT
MISCELLANEOUS

DATE: August 15, 1950

The Evening Star of today, August 15, 1950, has a news item about the Shimon case indicating that the Justice Department has testimony that wire tapping at the Graylyn Hotel was carried on in 1948 to get information for the House Committee headed by Representative Macy, Republican of New York. It stated that the FBI is investigating alleged wire tapping by Shimon for the House Committee which probed gray market deals and indicated that the Government plans to take that case before the Grand Jury. These statements were attributed to "informed sources".

We are not conducting an investigation of Shimon's supposed wire tapping activities for the Macy Committee. Our investigation has been confined to the matters requested by the Department and no request has been received from the Department for such investigation.

For your information in this regard the Police report of the Shimon matter contains statements by [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] b7c, two Metropolitan Police Officers who were assigned to assist Shimon, to the effect that they assisted in a tap being run by Shimon at the Graylyn Hotel in 1948. They understood this tap was in connection with an investigation for the Macy Committee and both indicated that a letter of commendation for their efforts was received from Representative Macy.

During our investigation of the Howard Hughes phase of Shimon's activities, [REDACTED] advised that Representative Macy had personally contacted him in 1948 and requested the services of Lieutenant Shimon and other Police officers. [REDACTED] said that he did not know the nature of the assignment but recalled that a letter of commendation had been sent to the officers by Representative Macy. b7c

When Agents interviewed [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] concerning their knowledge of Shimon's wire tapping activities they mentioned the tap at the Graylyn Hotel and [REDACTED] specifically stated that it had nothing to do with the Howard Hughes investigation and [REDACTED] also said that he had not worked for Shimon during the alleged Howard Hughes tap. b7c

Agents obtained from Shimon's personnel file a photostatic copy of the Macy letter of commendation referred to which is dated May 13, 1948 and is addressed to Superintendent Barrett. Macy, as Chairman of the Committee to investigate questionable Trade Practices, expressed thanks to Superintendent Barrett for his cooperation and especially acknowledged the "confidential work that was done" successfully by Lt. Joseph W. Shimon, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. There was no mention in this letter of the nature of such work or of the Agent who conducted the Grand Jury hearings. b7c

Wiretaps Not Illegal

No 'Wash' of Shimon

U. S. Atty. George Morris Fay, with whom Lieut. Joseph Shimon once worked, today has calmed, for the moment at least, the anger of the Senate District sub-committee investigating wiretapping.

But yesterday the senators, who questioned him behind closed doors, berated him for telling a News reporter last Friday that the Government never would have made a case against Lieut. Shimon even if the statute of limitations hadn't expired until "next January."

The senators wanted to know, it is understood, whether Mr. Fay was trying to throw cold water on their investigation.

NO HARM MEANT

Mr. Fay quickly said that no criticism of the Senate Committee was intended.

Mr. Fay, according to Sen. Claude Pepper (D., Fla.), sub-committee chairman, explained the Government had a purely circumstantial case against Lieut. Shimon.

The police officer admitted taping phones in the Howard Hughes case in 1947 and several police aides testified they eavesdropped under his direction and then turned their notes over to him, Sen. Pepper said Mr. Fay reported. But to violate the wiretapping law, the information received in a wiretap must be divulged, Mr. Fay said.

"The facts of the wire-tapping are there," Sen. Pepper quoted Mr. Fay as saying, "but the technical offense of divulgence in Hughes case could not be proved."

As for himself, Mr. Fay added, according to Sen. Pepper, he didn't approve violently of wire-tapping and it is never used by the U. S. Attorney's office. It wasn't even used in the gambling cases, he said.

Then the senators wanted to know why Mr. Fay gave back to Police Chief Robert J. Barrett the copy of the police wire-tapping investigation and why it was a year after the police investigation before the matter was taken to a grand jury.

Mr. Fay said, according to Sen. Pepper, that he returned the report on wire-tapping because Maj. Barrett already had discussed it with the Justice Department.

COPLOW CASE INVOLVED

The delay in giving the case to the grand jury, he explained, was because the Justice Department did not want to prejudice the JUDITH COPLOW espionage case. Miss Coplow charged the Government tried to conceal wiretapping activities in her case and the Government has denied its case was based on wiretapping.

Mr. Fay also told the sub-committee, Sen. Pepper said, that he never assigned Lieut. Shimon to do any investigative work for any Congressional committee. He said Lieut. Shimon told him in 1947 he was doing some "confidential work" for a Congressional committee but gave no details. Mr. Fay said he assumed Maj. Barrett had assigned Lieut. Shimon to the job.

Pepper said Maj. Barrett testified last week he never assigned Lieut. Shimon to work for any Senate committee.

Police Precinct Detective James G. Bryant, one-time aide or Lieut. Shimon in the U. S. Attorney's office, earlier yesterday told the committee that he helped Lieut. Shimon tap phones in the Hughes suites at the Carlton and Mayflower in 1947 and that Lieut. Shimon told him it was for the Senate War Investigating Committee. Other police aides told the committee earlier Lieut. Shimon told them the work was for an unnamed congressional committee.

Sen. Pepper said the first open hearing in the case will be on Thursday in the Senate Caucus Room, scene of the Hughes hearings. Witnesses will be Pvt. John McFale, former assistant to Lieut. Shimon, and Joseph Tait, head of U. S. Recording Co., who told the committee yesterday he had lent recording equipment to Lieut. Shimon.

The committee will meet at 3 p. m. today to hear three witnesses: Robert Corish, credit manager of the Mayflower, John Howard, general manager of Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Co., and William J. Neiss, Washington money lender and used car dealer and former business associate of Lieut. Shimon.

FBI Investigating Shimon Activity For House Unit

Grand Jury to Get Wire-Tapping Data On Gray-Market Probe

The FBI is investigating alleged wire-tapping by Police Lt. Joseph L. Shimon for the House committee which probed "gray market" deals and the Government is planning to take that case before the grand jury, informed sources reported today.

The Justice Department, it was learned, has testimony that wire-tapping at the Graylyn Hotel in New York was done to get information for the House committee headed by Representative Macy, Republican, of New York.

The Government, according to these sources, hopes to find a witness who will testify that telephone conversations overheard at Graylyn were subsequently released.

That was the stumbling block in the prosecution of Lt. Shimon for the alleged wire-tapping of telephones used by Howard Hughes, the millionaire industrialist, while he was here to testify before the Senate committee investigating wartime plane contracts in 1947. See Explains Failure to Indict.

United States Attorney George Morris Fay, in his appearance yesterday before the Pepper subcommittee of the Senate Select Committee, explained under repeated questioning that the grand jury failed to indict Lt. Shimon last year because it could not prove he had divulged any of the information gained by eavesdropping on telephone conversations.

At the time Lt. Shimon was working for the Macy committee, it was learned, he was the uniformed liaison officer between police headquarters and the court, and he was assigned as chief investigator for Mr. Fay's office, testifying for the Macy committee. It is difficult to inform sources, he was given two police detectives to assist him, whereas Mr. Fay's office had none.

Mr. Macy told The Star he had called on Police Capt. Robert J. Barrett for aid during the 1947 investigation, which dealt mainly with prostitutes. Mr. Macy said Capt. Barrett gave him the name of Lt. Shimon, Capt. Barrett added that he had no knowledge of any wire-tapping involved in the work of Lt. Shimon.

In another development, Senator Bridges, Republican of New Hampshire, acknowledged that he had praised the services of Lt. Shimon but denied any knowledge that Lt. Shimon engaged in wire-tapping.

More Testimony Due Today.

His statement came as the Pepper Subcommittee plowed ahead with its investigation of police wire-tapping, still seeking to learn who got the information.

Five members of the Metropolitan Police Department already have told the subcommittee of tapping or listening-in on private phone conversations but the group as yet apparently has not established definitely for whom it was done.

Several more witnesses were to be heard at another closed session at 3 p.m. today, including telephone company and hotel officials. The first open hearing is scheduled for Thursday in the big Caucus Room in the Senate Office Building, where one of the principal accusers of Lt. Shimon will take the stand—Pvt. John McHale.

There were confirmed reports last night that Senator Bridges was the one who brought Lt. Shimon into the picture in the summer of 1947 to chase away a "rogues' gallery" man who had been "shadowing" Senator Brewster, Republican, of Maine.

Senator Brewster was head of the 80th Congress War Investigating Committee of the Senate. He became embroiled at that time in hot controversies with Howard Hughes, West Coast plane builder and movie maker, during an inquiry into the plane builder's wartime contracts, conducted by the Ferguson subcommittee.

Grand Jury Witness.

Also, it developed last night, Senator Bridges made an unannounced appearance recently, bearing the District grand jury, then probing into wire-tapping accusations against Lt. Shimon. He went there, authoritative sources said, to confirm the account Senator Brewster had given the grand jury of "having been followed" during the 1947 hearings.

Senator Brewster has told reporters that he paid Lt. Shimon about $100 for "expenses" which the police officer told him he had incurred in tracing down that shadow.

Senator Bridges, who was chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee during the 80th Congress, said he could not discuss his appearance before the grand jury.

He agreed he had written a letter praising services rendered by Lt. Shimon at various times. He said this was just like "dozens of others" he had written commanding officials for co-operation.

"It had nothing to do with the Hughes-Brewster issue," he said. "It was not a member of that War Investigating Committee."

Mr. Fay assured the Pepper Subcommittee yesterday the investigation of wire-tapping will continue. But it was reported later that grand jury hearings on this probably will not be resumed before September. The statute of limitations would not bar prosecution of the Macy case until next spring.

One possible exception to this is the case involving testimony by Norman Whittaker, who figured in the Gaston E. Means $100,000 Lindbergh baby ransom hoax, of which the late Mrs. Evelyn Walsh McLean was the victim. This case may be taken up prior to September.

Mr. Fay was sharply criticized at the executive hearing yesterday before the Pepper Subcommittee by Senator Neely, Democrat, of West Virginia, head of the Senate District Committee and a member of the Pepper subcommittee.

His principal attack, witnesses said, was on a press interview Mr. Fay had given last Friday when he discussed failure by the grand jury to bring indictments in the Shimon wire-tapping cases.

Seen Cold Attitude.

Senator Neely is said to have protested that what Mr. Fay said could be taken to indicate a cold attitude toward the Senate investigation. Mr. Fay denied he had any such intention and sharply denounced wire-tapping. He said he had no knowledge that Lt. Shimon, formerly his chief police investigator, had been engaging in such work, until charges were made against the officer a year ago.

Lt. Shimon was transferred from the United States Attorney's office last August and sent out to No. 14 Precinct. Since then he has been brought into No. 2 Precinct.

One complaint against Mr. Fay was that nearly a year elapsed before the complaints against Lt. Shimon were taken before the grand jury.

But on his side it was contended that he was not in charge since his presentation was made by

Expert Testimony Criticized. SAW
Another complaint against Mr. Fay was that he had not received the report of Police Capt. Barrett on the wire-tapping activities of Lt. Shimon, but rather asked that it be sent to the Justice Department. The explanation here was that Mr. Fay made this request since he had been informed that Maj. Barrett already had advised the Justice Department he had compiled the report.

Precinct Detective James G. Bryant, a witness at Senate hearings yesterday, reportedly told of having been directed by Lt. Shimon to engage in tapping the phones of Plane-Builders Hughes at the Mayflower and Carlton Hotels in 1947. He said he turned over to Lt. Shimon numerous pages of typewritten notes, taken down while listening to tapped wires.

Detective Bryant, according to reports, came up with the statement that Lt. Shimon had told him the work was being done for the 80th Congress War Investigating Committee in connection with the Hughes case.

BY SPECIAL MESSANGER

LEUTENANT JOSEPH W. SHIMOK, WES.
WASHINGTON POLICE DEPARTMENT
MISCELLANEOUS

In his memorandum dated August 11, 1950, Assistant Attorney General James M. McInerney requested this Bureau to contact [REDACTED] and Howard Hughes to ascertain their knowledge with respect to the shadowing of Senator Brewster.

Agents of this Bureau have contacted [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] in this regard and the results of the interview with these persons is set forth in the report which is enclosed herewith.

When Agents interviewed [REDACTED] he stated that in his capacity as [REDACTED] of Howard Hughes' interests, he [REDACTED] during the Senatorial hearings in 1947, and that he and [REDACTED] had full and complete information in connection with what took place during those hearings. He pointed out that Hughes had been extremely busy at the time in connection with other matters, and that he had only about five per cent of the knowledge known to [REDACTED]. Both [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] cited as an example the fact that Hughes did not have personal knowledge of the surveillance which was conducted on Senator Brewster in 1947 until he had discussed the matter with them within the past few days. Both stated that an interview with Hughes would be entirely repetitious and that because of his extremely heavy commitments, he preferred not to be personally interviewed in connection with this matter but desired that [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] furnish the information known to them. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] advised, however, that Hughes is willing to be interviewed if an interview with him is considered absolutely essential and that if this were the case it would not be necessary to issue a subpoena for him.

In view of the foregoing, it would be appreciated if you would advise whether you still desire that Mr. Hughes be interviewed.

There is enclosed one copy of the report of Special Agent [REDACTED] dated August 25, 1950, at Los Angeles, California, which reflects the results of additional investigation requested by you in this matter.

This investigation has been limited to the matters specifically requested by you and, of course, is not a full inquiry into the captioned matter.

SUBJECT: Lt. Joseph W. Shimon

19331 82-16-28

This is in reply to your memorandum of August 29, 1950, addressed to the Attorney General and which has been forwarded to this Division for attention. In that memorandum you pointed out that we had previously requested you to detail special agents to interview Messrs. [REDACTED] and Howard Hughes, to ascertain their knowledge with respect to the shadowing of Senator Brewster. You stated that [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] have been interviewed and stated that Hughes did not possess all of the information that was known to them. You requested to be advised whether we still desire that Mr. Hughes be interviewed.

It is our opinion and we hereby request that Howard Hughes be interviewed by special agents of the Bureau to ascertain what knowledge he possesses concerning the shadowing of Senator Brewster at the time Howard Hughes was being investigated by the Senate War Investigating Committee.

In view of the possibility that [REDACTED] may have committed perjury before the Senate District Committee and before the grand jury in connection with his testimony relative to the shadowing of Senator Brewster it is requested that a full inquiry into the shadowing of Senator Brewster be instituted by your Bureau. We therefore request that all leads indicated by the interviews of [REDACTED] and the future interview of Hughes be fully investigated.

If we have been operating under restrictions here [REDACTED] we should reply as I have already indicated in the Shimon case.

[REDACTED] stated that he had no personal knowledge but did have an impression that some checking was done concerning Senator BREWSTER, [REDACTED] at the time on behalf of the BREWSTER interests but he felt that the BREWSTER interests would have been foolish if they had not used every available means to protect themselves in connection with the Senate Hearings. 101/1

[redacted] advised that an individual named [redacted] [redacted] first name he did not recall as being [redacted] or did not recall at all. [redacted] contacted HUGHES by phone and possibly had traveled to California to contact HUGHES. [redacted] had indicated that [redacted] information concerned contacts between Senator BREWSTER and representatives of PAN AMERICAN AIRWAYS. [redacted] stated that [redacted] representations to [redacted] had interested HUGHES who had instructed [redacted] to contact [redacted] for purposes of evaluating [redacted] information in relation to BREWSTER in connection with the Senatorial Hearings. [redacted] represented that he had possible knowledge of the gift of a diamond bracelet to Senator BREWSTER's wife from some executive of Pan-American Airways.

(3) [redacted] represented that he had knowledge of the existence of a person who was a go-between for Pan-American Airways with Senator BREWSTER.

(4) [redacted] represented he had some knowledge of the fact that Pan-American Airways was financing a possible vice-presidential boom for Senator BREWSTER in connection with the 1948 election.

(5) [redacted] represented that he had some knowledge of the possibility that Pan-American representatives went to various service clubs throughout the United States and suggested to these clubs the desirability of having Senator BREWSTER address the group on matters of national interest and if so desired, these representatives recommended Senator BREWSTER as a speaker and furnished the club with $1,000 to $1,500 with which to pay him. [redacted] indicated that it was in this manner that Pan-American representatives approached Senator BREWSTER, thereby securing his over-all cooperation and assistance for Pan-American Airways in connection with matters which might affect his campaign. [redacted] recalled that it came out at the hearings that Senator BREWSTER had traveled to South America via PAN-AMERICAN AIRWAYS but that it had been shown that Senator BREWSTER had paid for his transportation in this instance.

[redacted] stated that he felt that as a result of the hearings and decisions made since that time that TWA was in a very unfavorable position in its competition with Pan-American Airways. He stated that for this reason he was rather reluctant to see this matter reopened, but that he did not like to advise anyone to be uncooperative with any agency of the Government. KNOWLEDGE OF SURVEILLANCE OF SENATOR OWEN BREWSTER

[REDACTED] advised that he had been present in Washington, D. C. for a great portion of the Summer of 1947 while Senatorial Hearings were being held. [REDACTED] stated that he had no personal knowledge but did have the impression that some checking was done concerning Senator BREWSTER's activities on behalf of the HUGHES interests. [REDACTED] stated he based this impression on pure logic in view of the fact that the competitive positions between Pan
AMERICAN AIRWAYS and TWA were intense and that for the protection of HUGHES Interests at the hearings, it would have been important for the HUGHES interests to know as much as possible concerning Senator BREWSTER's associations or contacts with representatives of PAN AMERICAN AIRWAYS. [REDACTED] requested that he had no specific knowledge of such checking or surveillance and that [REDACTED] was speaking only of his impression. He stated he believed [REDACTED] would have complete knowledge of such a matter if it had occurred.

[REDACTED] advised that he had been in Washington during the summer of 1947 and was [REDACTED] for the HUGHES interests in connection with the Senatorial Hearings being held at that time. [REDACTED] advised he had hired the SCHINDLER DETECTIVE AGENCY of New York City, a private investigative agency, which had done a considerable amount of work for TWA, to conduct a physical surveillance of Senator BREWSTER. [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] whose first name [REDACTED] did not recall, had agreed to handle the assignment personally. [REDACTED] recalled that this physical surveillance was for the purpose of ascertaining whether Senator BREWSTER made contact with representatives of PAN AMERICAN AIRWAYS in Washington, D. C. [REDACTED] indicated that [REDACTED] was to handle the assignment alone and personally and recalled that [REDACTED] did not work on this assignment for more than a period of one week, to the best of recollection. [REDACTED] without referring to records, was relative to the period of [REDACTED] was in July of 1947. He recalled having [REDACTED] sitting in the lobby of the MAYFLOWER HOTEL in Washington, D. C. on occasions but stated that [REDACTED] had never submitted a written report to the results of his work. [REDACTED] recalled that [REDACTED] telephoned him on one occasion and advised [REDACTED] that he had "picked up Senator BREWSTER on the Hill and taken him to the PAN AMERICAN executive residence." [REDACTED] commented that it would probably have been more appropriate to observe Senator BREWSTER's actions prior to the beginning of the hearings. [REDACTED] stated that exact records of the period of [REDACTED] employment on this assignment could probably be located if it were necessary. [REDACTED] stated that he had no knowledge of any other surveillance being conducted on Senator BREWSTER and was definite in stating that the surveillance ordered was to be physical only for the above stated purpose.

[REDACTED] exhibited a clipping from the "Washington Star" dated August 6, 1950, which, in part, quoted HOWARD HUGHES as stating to the press that to his knowledge no one had shadowed Senator BREWSTER. [REDACTED] asked that it be made clear that HOWARD HUGHES did not, at the time of this statement, have any knowledge that [REDACTED] had ordered a physical surveillance of Senator BREWSTER or that it had been conducted. [REDACTED] stated that since [REDACTED] was not involved in HUGHES' interests, he would have no reason to be concerned with such matters and that he had retained [REDACTED] without HUGHES' knowledge. [REDACTED] pointed out that he wanted it clear that HUGHES had not intentionally made any misstatements to the press and that HUGHES had not by knowledge of the physical surveillance of Senator BREWSTER until the past few days when the matter was discussed with HUGHES following the interview of [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] stated that he felt that either Mr. HUGHES or a spokesman for him should have an opportunity to make an additional statement to the press if the information furnished by [REDACTED] were to be released to the press.

KNOWLEDGE CONCERNING [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] vaguely recalled [REDACTED] as being familiar. He described [REDACTED] as one of many individuals who had attempted to sell services and information to representatives of HUGHES at about the time of the Senatorial Hearings in 1947. To the best of [REDACTED] recollection, [REDACTED] boasted of contacts in Washington, D. C. and indicated that he possessed information which would be helpful to the HUGHES interests. [REDACTED] had the impression that [REDACTED] had talked to Mr. HUGHES on the phone and had indicated that he had valuable information and that thereafter [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were instructed to interview him for purposes of evaluating such information and [REDACTED] possessed.

INTERVIEW WITH [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] operator of [REDACTED] was interviewed at his office September 12, 1950. [REDACTED] advised he was following the present investigation and Grand Jury action at Washington regarding this matter very closely and had several pages of notes as yet undictated regarding it. He stated he has been in very close touch with the HUGHES' Interests as well as with [REDACTED] and was aware that [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] had been interviewed.

[REDACTED] advised that early in 1947 he was engaged by HOWARD HUGHES personally to conduct investigation in connection with a trip made to South America by Senator OWEN BREWSTER. The purpose of this investigation was solely to determine if Pan American Airways had paid for BREWSTER's trip. After being originally engaged by HUGHES personally, [REDACTED] had dealings with other members of HUGHES' Interests as well as HUGHES himself. There was no limitation placed on finances, personnel, or techniques by HUGHES or anyone in the HUGHES' Interests.

In connection with conducting the original investigation early in 1947, [REDACTED] engaged [REDACTED] as an associate in Washington, D. C. They subsequently engaged the services of [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] to conduct investigation in the state of Maine and in areas other than Washington, D. C. [REDACTED] stated this investigation which was conducted prior to July of 1947 did not require any surveillance work either physical, technical, or wire tapping. Neither HUGHES nor any of his associates ever requested [REDACTED] to perform surveillances or wire tapping, and [REDACTED] did not request any of his associates, which were the three investigators mentioned above, to conduct any surveillances or wire tapping. [REDACTED] stated that if [REDACTED] or [REDACTED] performed any wire tapping or discussed wire tapping it was entirely without his knowledge.

In about July or August, 1947 when HUGHES and his associates went to Washington in connection with the Congressional Hearings, neither HUGHES nor any of his associates requested any investigation or work of any kind by [REDACTED] in connection with preparation for this testimony. [REDACTED] was advised by [REDACTED] that [REDACTED] contested the HUGHES' Interests in Washington at that time in an attempt to be retained in a legal capacity in some legal liaison position by the HUGHES' Interests. However, to [REDACTED] knowledge he was not retained in any capacity. To [REDACTED] knowledge the only work performed by [REDACTED] for the HUGHES' Interests up to that time was investigative as an associate with [REDACTED] in attempting to determine whether BREWSTER's trip to South America was financed by Pan American Airways. As far as [redacted] knows neither himself, [redacted] nor [redacted] conducted any investigation or performed any services, including wire tapping, in connection with HUGHES' appearances in Washington at the Congressional Hearings.

Soon after the hearings held in July or August of 1947, the scope of [redacted] investigation as requested by the HUGHES' Interests was enlarged to determine any connection between Senator BREWSTER and Pan American Airways. [redacted] stated the additional investigation requested by HUGHES did not require any kind of surveillance work, either physical, technical, or wire tapping, and none was requested by any of the HUGHES' Interests and none was performed by [redacted] or any of his associates to his knowledge. He again stated that if any wire tapping was performed by anyone for HUGHES or the HUGHES' Interests, it was without his knowledge or instructions, and that he never discussed wire tapping or any kind of surveillance with [redacted] or [redacted]. [redacted] stated that [redacted] and [redacted] in their investigative activities for the HUGHES' Interests received [redacted] instructions from [redacted] and as far as he knew conducted no investigation other than that ordered by him. According to [redacted] his first knowledge of any wire tapping in connection with the Congressional Hearings was upon reading disclosures in the press recently made by DREW PARSON.

With respect to [redacted] advised he does not know this individual and did not recognize the name when it came up in the recent investigation. [redacted] attempted to refresh [redacted] memory recently by stating that [redacted] was introduced to LAPPIN in a hotel lobby when [redacted] was in Washington during the second Congressional Hearings eight months to a year after July or August of 1947. [redacted] told [redacted] LAPPIN was trying to offer his services to the HUGHES' Interests. [redacted] advised he had no knowledge of anyone by the name of [redacted] or [redacted]. He stated the names meant absolutely nothing to him.

[redacted] advised that to his knowledge the Behindler Agency of New York was hired by the HUGHES' Interests at some time. However, he did not know when or for what purpose or whether [redacted] conducted any kind of surveillance work for HUGHES' Interests.

INTERVIEW WITH HOWARD HUGHES

HOWARD HUGHES was interviewed at the Beverly Hills Hotel in the presence of his attorney, TOM SLACK, on September 14, 1950. HUGHES advised that he was aware that [redacted] had conducted an investigation of Senator BREWSTER, and that he had requested this investigation by [redacted] for the purpose of ascertaining Senator BREWSTER's relationship and associations executives or representatives of the Pan American Airways Company. HUGHES recalled this investigation was instituted in 1947 and stated that he had not specified any investigative steps to [redacted] but had merely stated to [redacted] the broad purpose of the investigation and left the methods to be employed to [redacted]. He stated that he had received reports from [redacted] on the matter and distinctly recalled [redacted] telling him on one occasion that [redacted] did not intend to employ any technical surveillance in connection with the investigation of Senator BREWSTER. HUGHES stated he recalled this particularly because he had asked what a technical surveillance was, and that [redacted] had advised him that it referred to wire taps and microphones. 370

HUGHES stated that the investigation conducted by [redacted] developed factual information which had numerous ramifications and that some of these ramifications were developed by investigation, but that eventually the investigation was terminated before all investigative leads had been followed up. HUGHES stated the reason the investigation had not been completed was due to the pressure of more important affairs and the seeming lack of necessity for completing all phases that had been raised by the investigation completed.

HUGHES stated that until very recently when it had been discussed with him by his General Manager, BOB DIETRICH, he had not been aware of the fact that the Schindler Detective Agency of New York had been employed to conduct additional investigation of Senator BREWSTER in 1947. HUGHES disclaimed any personal knowledge of the results of such investigation. HUGHES stated that these two investigations represented all investigations of which he had knowledge or which had been brought to his attention as being instigated by the HUGHES' Interests in so far as Senator BREWSTER was concerned. He recalled that [redacted] had gone to Washington to conduct some investigation which led from Washington to the state of Maine, but that he was sure in his own mind that [redacted] had never conducted any surveillance of any kind of Senator BREWSTER, and that [redacted] would have employed other operators had such been deemed advisable. HUGHES felt quite certain that [redacted] had not done so, however.

HUGHES recalled that a man named [redacted] had been referred to him by a third party whose identity HUGHES could not recall but in whom HUGHES was certain he had considerable faith. This third party had highly recommended [redacted] and [redacted] in turn represented to HUGHES that he had information which would be of value to the HUGHES' Interests in connection with the Senatorial Hearings being held in the summer of 1947. HUGHES recalled that based on [redacted] initial representations concerning the value of this information he had referred [redacted] to DIETRICH and SLACK, who were then in Washington, in order that they might hear the details of [redacted] information and evaluate it in relation to matters of interest to the HUGHES' Interests. 370

HUGHES recalled that apparently DIETRICH and [REDACTED] were unable to come to some satisfactory terms and [REDACTED] services were not retained. HUGHES denied that [REDACTED] had engaged in any type of surveillance of Senator BREWSTER at his request and was unable to recall anything concerning [REDACTED] elation in this matter except his original contact.

HUGHES advised that he had never personally heard of [REDACTED] until the very recent past when Mr. DIETRICH advised him that [REDACTED] sought to be retained by the HUGHES' interests as an attorney at about the time of the hearings. HUGHES stated that he had no information and was unfamiliar with the names of [REDACTED] Lieutenant SIMON, [REDACTED] or [REDACTED]. He stated that he had seen these names in newspaper accounts of the present investigation in Washington but had no other knowledge concerning these individuals.

HUGHES and SLACK discussed between themselves the date that JAMES FRY, former President of TWA, resigned from that corporation. They decided that he had no longer had an active part in this corporation after April of 1947. This discussion was brought about by HUGHES attempting to learn whether or not FRY or any other executive of TWA might have ordered any investigation of Senator BREWSTER without the knowledge of HUGHES, DIETRICH, or SLACK. Both SLACK and HUGHES concluded that it would have been very unlikely that FRY or any other TWA official had ordered any such investigation.

INTERVIEW WITH [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] was contacted at the [REDACTED] on September 8, 1950. He said he must respectfully decline to make any comment regarding this matter until he confers with his attorney.

FROM : A. Rosen Rosen
SUBJECT: LIEUTENANT JOSEPH W. SHIMON, was
Washington Police Department
MISCELLANEOUS

DATE: August 30, 1950

Investigation in the Shimon case has now disclosed that a representative of Howard Hughes arranged with a private detective agency at New York City to have a surveillance conducted on Senator Owen Brewster during the Senatorial hearings into the Hughes case in 1947.

Howard Hughes' interests, when recently interviewed by Agents at Los Angeles, advised that he had arranged for the Hughes interests in connection with the Senatorial hearings in 1947. He advised that he had hired the Schindler Detective Agency of New York City, a private investigative agency which had previously done work for TMA, to conduct a physical surveillance of Senator Brewster. The purpose of this surveillance was to ascertain whether the Senator made contact with representatives of Pan American Airways in Washington, D. C. [redacted] said that one of the Schindlers, whose first name he could not recall, had personally handled the assignment and that to the best of his recollection the surveillance lasted approximately one week sometime in the month of July, 1947. Schindler did not make any written reports, but [redacted] said he had telephoned on one occasion to state that he had "picked up Senator Brewster on the Hill and taken him to the Pan American executive residence." [redacted] said he had no knowledge of any other surveillance conducted on Senator Brewster and that the surveillance he ordered was to be physical only. He explained that Hughes had no knowledge of this surveillance until a few days ago, when the matter was discussed with him following interview by Agents with Tom Slack, General Counsel for Hughes. Hughes has indicated that he would prefer not to be interviewed in this connection unless the Department considers it absolutely essential, and the matter has been referred to the Department.

It will be recalled that Lieutenant Shimon has stated that he was employed by Senator Brewster in 1947 for the purpose of determining the identity of an individual who was supposedly shadowing the Senator. This person was subsequently identified as [redacted] a confidence man of Washington, D. C. [redacted] was questioned regarding [redacted] and said he recalled that this individual had contacted him and Hughes, seeking to have them employ him during the hearings in 1947. He said that [redacted] however, was not employed. When Agents interviewed [redacted] he admitted acquaintance with Howard Hughes but denied any connection with shadowing Senator Brewster.

[redacted] said that [redacted] was persistent in efforts to procure employment with Hughes and represented that he had important information concerning Senator Brewster which would be helpful to Hughes. He insisted that he be employed before divulging this information, but did furnish [redacted] with some bits of ✓ [redacted] also said that [redacted] represented he had knowledge that Pan American representatives went to various service clubs throughout the United States and suggested the desirability of having an important speaker address the group on matters of national interest. In these cases, if the club agreed, these representatives supposedly recommended Senator Brewster as such a speaker and furnished the club $1,000 to $1,500 with which to pay the speaker's fees. [redacted] indicated that Pan American was thus subsidizing Brewster in return for his assistance to the company.

[redacted] also said that he believed [redacted] was probably the "bag man" for [redacted] and that he felt that if the authorities wanted to get at the bottom of this case they should "sweat" [redacted] who [redacted] said he thought had more information about this investigation than anyone else.
